

What's New

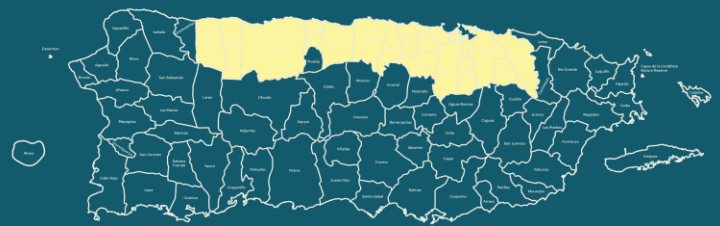

IN PUERTO RICO?

Puerto Rico is thriving, and exciting projects, initiatives, and businesses are constantly developing. Here's your monthly update about the new developments on the Island that continue to improve the #LiveBoricua experience for visitors.

NORTH & METRO REGION

The North and Metro region are seeing a wave of exciting new openings across hospitality, dining, and nightlife. In Condado, Magdalena 1163 debuts as a boutique luxury hotel with 10 residence-style rooms, a rooftop terrace, fitness center, and premium amenities. Meanwhile, the Hyatt Centric San Juan Isla Verde, formerly the Verdanza Hotel, opened in December 2025, introducing 223 redesigned guestrooms and public spaces as the Island's first Hyatt Centric.

Old San Juan is thriving with new culinary and nightlife spots, including Cui Cui, a café, restaurant, and cocktail bar; Tintineo, a restaurant and cocktail bar; Boxlab @ El Champi, a new taproom; and Dos Lobos Empanada Bar, offering cocktails and empanadas. Santurce adds Lado Cé, a wine bar and tapas spot by Café Con Cé; Chin Chin Trattoria Moderna, a modern take on Italian classics with local ingredients; and Cátame Gourmet, a curated gourmet shop with specialty imports from Spain. In Condado, Hilda Deli brings gourmet sandwiches, cheeses, and specialty foods, while Ujeong Korean BBQ in Guaynabo blends authentic Korean tradition with Puerto Rican flavors. Together, these openings showcase the North and Metro's vibrant mix of luxury hospitality, innovative dining, and lively nightlife.
